The long-distance teacher

Mr Frank Garret, 65, is a schoolteacher. He is English, but he lives in France in the Normandy village of Yerville. Mr Garret lives in France, but he works in England.

Every Monday he leaves home at 2.30 in the morning and drives 101 miles from his house to Boulogne, where he leaves his car and catches the ferry to Folkestone. Then he catches the train to Maidstone in Kent and arrives at Manor School at 8.25. He teaches French from 9.00 in the morning to 3.30 in the afternoon and then he leaves school. He arrives home at 9.30 in the evening. The journey there and back takes twelve hours and costs only £16!

Fortunately, Mr Garret works in England only one day a week. But, what does he do on the other days? He teaches English. He has a class of eighteen French students in Yerville. Mr Garret says: "Yes, on Tuesdays I'm tired, but I love my job in England and I love my home in France. I'm a happy man!"
